The interface includes a navigation pane on the left with folders like "Inbox", "Calendar", "Contacts", "Deleted Items", "Drafts", "Journal", "Junk E-mail", "Notes", "Outbox", "Sent Items", and "Tasks". The main content area displays a "Spam Mail Summary for tech@slocoe.org" from "Spam Mail Summary [notspam@lightspeedsystems.com]".

The summary includes a banner for "Total Traffic Control v6 Spam Email Summary" and a message: "Dear tech@slocoe.org, this is your spam email summary from Total Traffic Control. You received 9 spam, 0 virus infected, and 0 good messages." Below this, there are instructions on how to handle spam messages, such as clicking "Forward" or "Whitelist".

A table lists the spam messages received:

At the bottom of the summary, it says: "To view the last full week of spam received click here."
