

Teaching Cannabis/Marijuana Awareness and Prevention:

A Conference for Educators Working with Middle and High School Youth

There will be a Nicotine/Tobacco and Cannabis track

Sponsored by the Stanford Cannabis Awareness and Prevention Toolkit

Keynote Presentations by:

Dr. Timmen L. Cermak, MD, psychiatrist and expert in adolescent substance abuse/addiction: “Educating the Educators About Cannabis: From Bud to the Brain”

Dr. Bonnie Halpern-Felsher, PhD, professor of pediatrics and founder/executive director of the Cannabis Awareness and Prevention Toolkit: “So what does the research tell us about Teens and Cannabis use?”

When:

Friday, January 31st, 2020
8 am - 3:30 pm

Where:

Clark Kerr Conference Center
2601 Warring Street, Berkeley, CA
94720

Cost:

Early Bird (On or Before Dec. 6th) = $125
Regular (After Dec. 6th) = $150

Who Should Attend?

- Educators
- Administrators
- Other school-based faculty
- Community-based organizations who work with youth
- School resource officers
- Early interventionists
- And you!

Workshops:

- Delivering Reality-Based Education in the Classroom
- Strategies for Educating Students Who Use
- How Do We Address Vaping & Cannabis in a TUPE-Funded World?
- Where's Your Dopamine? THC and the Brain
- Cannabis/Marijuana 101: Weeding Thru the Options
- The Triangulum: Tobacco/Nicotine, Marijuana and Vaping, The Future is Now!
- Cannabis Classroom-Based Projects and School-Wide Activities/ Education
- What Does the Latest Research say About Cannabis and Adolescents?
- School Policy and Cannabis

And more!

Link to registration: <https://tinyurl.com/CanPrevConference>

Questions? Email canprevtoolkit@stanford.edu or call (650) 497-9351

Cannabis Awareness and Prevention Toolkit Website: stan.md/capt

