What is Redistricting

Definition

Redistricting is the process of adjusting district lines every 10 years after the release of the U.S. Census. The well-known examples are Congress and the legislature.

Within the U.S., redistricting has become an extremely politicized process and has been the subject of more high-profile Supreme Court decisions than any other part of our elections system.

Traditional Redistricting Principles

Preventing a Districting from Becoming a Gerrymander

There are a number of criteria that have been used nationally and upheld by courts.

- Relatively equal size – people, not citizens
- Contiguous – districts should not hop/jump
- Keep districts compact – appearance/function
- Maintain “communities of interest”
- Follow city/county/local government lines

Communities of Interest

Bringing like-minded people together for representation

A community of interest includes ethnic and language minorities and other groups.

Communities covered by the Voting Rights Act

- Latinos
- Asians
- African Americans

While race is a community of interest, it cannot be the predominant factor in drawing districts.

Fair Maps Act (2019)

Preventing a Districting from Becoming a Gerrymander

Starting in 2020, cities and counties doing redistricting have additional criteria they must follow under the California Fair Maps Act. This becomes a “best practice” for all agencies.

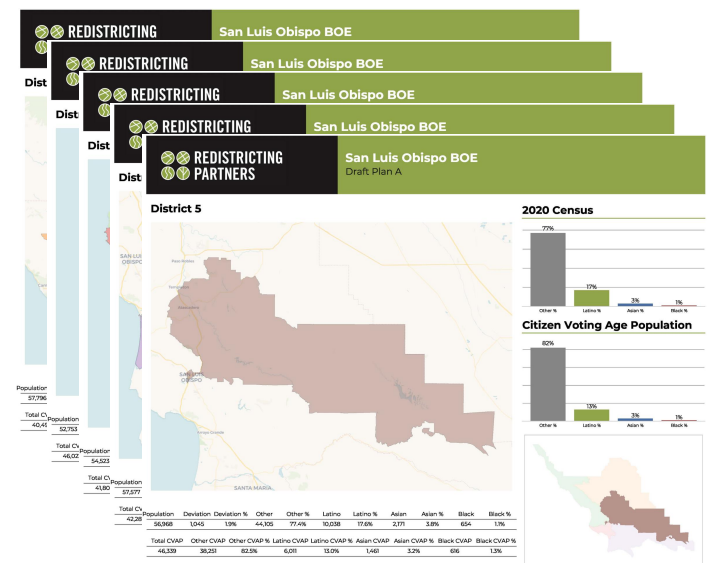

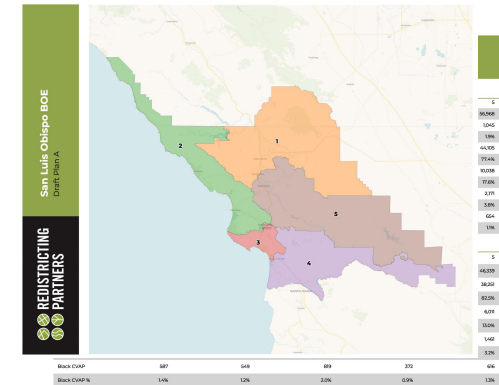

- Process/transparency when conducting redistricting
- Not using incumbent or candidate residence as a Community of Interest
- Not drawing districts to advantage a political party

These rules do not currently apply directly to San Luis Obispo Board of Education but redistricting best practices will likely push most agencies to voluntarily adopting them.

From COI to Maps

With more districts using commission-based redistricting, we move redistricting out into the public, with maps driven by Community of Interest testimony.

- Input from community drives process with multiple ways for the public to engage.
- Rules for process emphasize the importance of traditional criteria and minimizing divisions of neighborhoods.
- Releasing maps for feedback – today we will see plans to spark more public engagement.

Draft Map Plans A, B & C

Board Members were provided a packet with three consultant created plans based on traditional redistricting criteria. These maps were posted to the website for the public five days prior to tonight's Draft Map hearing.

- Each draft has been created with a less than 10% total deviation
- Each draft plan is provided with both a PDF and Online Web-based format

Draft Plan A

Minimal Change

We have created draft plans based on the traditional redistricting criteria

- Existing lines adjusted for population
- Adjusts existing lines for current population with a deviation of 9%
- Made minimal changes to Districts D1 & D2. Follow the Northern boundary of Paso Robles Joint Unified to place Oak Shores into D2.

Next Steps

January – Review of revised draft maps & selection of final maps. Board will review draft maps with changes from prior meeting, and select one set of maps to move to a final vote. Additional changes can be made to draft maps selected.

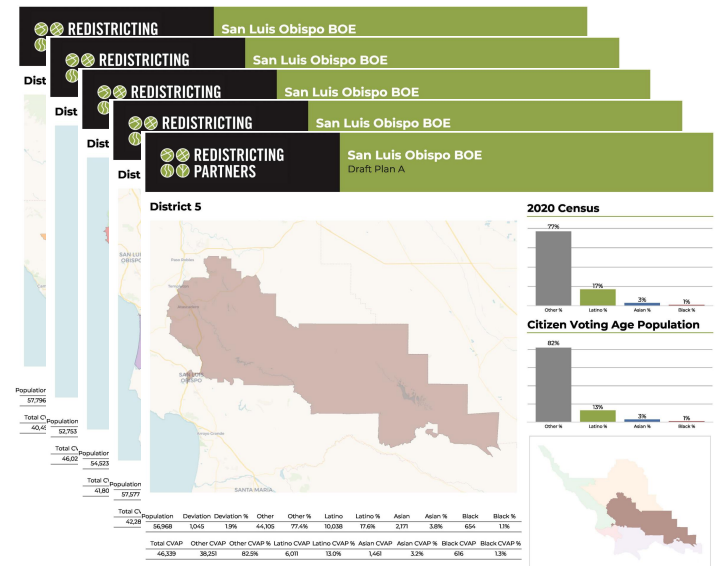

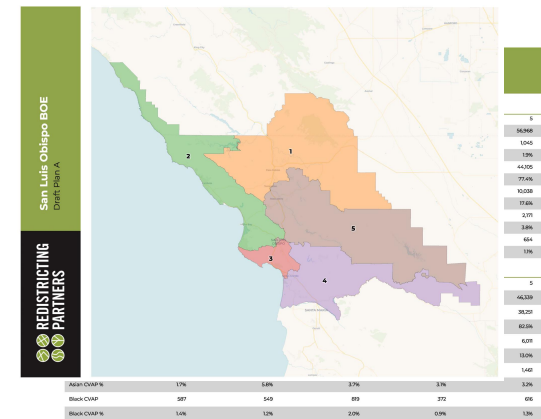

February – Board will vote on final maps.

What's Next

The board can make use of these mapping options in a number of ways.

- Identify preferred plan(s) with an understanding that none of these are final plans. It is an iterative process.
- Suggest possible changes – Redistricting Partners can provide adjustments to the boundaries.
- Put out for public input – the public will be very willing to tell us where we got the lines wrong. Input is our ally in developing final plans.
